

Procedure on revocation or expiry of licence

76. (1) Where the Commissioner General revokes a licence under Section 75, he shall cause to be served on the warehouse keeper notice of revocation by leaving the notice with the person in charge of the bonded warehouse; and thereupon that service shall be deemed to be notice of revocation to the owners of all goods warehoused therein.

(2) Where a warehouse keeper proposes not to renew his licence in relation to a bonded warehouse, then he shall cause notice of his intention to be given to the owners of all goods warehoused therein.

(3) Where the licence in relation to a bonded warehouse has been revoked or has expired, then, within such time as the Commissioner General may direct, all goods warehoused therein shall be entered and delivered for home use, for exportation, for removal to another warehouse, or for use as stores for aircraft or vessels.

(4) Where goods have not been entered and delivered in accordance with Subsection (3), the proper officer may cause the goods to be taken to a customs warehouse and thereupon the goods shall be dealt with in accordance with Section 58.

Warehouse
keeper to provide facilities

77. (1) A warehouse keeper shall-

- (a) provide office accommodation and just weights, scales, measures and other facilities for examining and taking account of goods and for securing them as the proper officer may reasonably require;
- (b) keep a record of all goods warehoused therein and keep that record at all times available for examination by the proper officer;
- (c) stack and arrange the goods in the bonded warehouse so as to permit reasonable access to and examination of every package at all times;
- (d) provide all necessary labour and materials for the storing, examining, packing, marking, coopering, weighing and taking stock of the warehoused goods whenever the proper officer so requires;

- (e) maintain such records and accounts relating to the operations of a refinery in such form and manner as the proper officer shall require, and shall keep the records and accounts at all times available for examination by the proper officer.

(2) Where a warehouse keeper contravenes any of the provisions of this Section the Commissioner General may direct that no other goods shall be warehoused by that warehouse keeper until he has, in the opinion of the Commissioner General, complied with those provisions.

(3) A warehouse keeper who contravenes any of the provisions of this Section or of a direction given by the Commissioner General under this Section shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding fifteen thousand Dalasis.

Stowage and storage of goods in bonded
warehouse

78. (1) The proper officer may direct in what parts or divisions of a bonded warehouse and in what manner goods shall be deposited therein.

(2) Subject to section 64, where goods have been warehoused in a bonded warehouse, then, except with the approval of the proper officer, the goods shall not be moved or interfered with in any way, nor shall any alteration be made in the marks or numbers of any package.

(3) A warehouse keeper who contravenes or who causes or permits a contravention of this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten thousand Dalasis and any goods in respect of which an offence under subsection (2) has been committed shall be liable to forfeiture.

Removal of goods from private to general
warehouse

79. (1) Where the warehouse keeper of a private bonded warehouse contravenes any of the provisions of this Act, the proper officer may require him within such time as the proper officer may direct, to remove
