

(7) A person who fails to comply with any requirements made under this Section shall be guilty of an offence.

Power to require information from importers concerning dumping

280. (1) The Commissioner General may require the importer of goods regarded as having been dumped to state such facts concerning the goods and their history as the Commissioner General may think necessary to determine whether the goods are goods originating in a country specified in an order or are goods exported from any country and to furnish him in such form as he may require with proof of any statements so made; and if proof is not furnished to his satisfaction or the required facts are not stated, the goods shall be deemed for the purposes of this Act to have originated in or, as the case may be, to have been exported from, such country as he may determine.

(2) Where the question whether any and if so what dumping duty is chargeable on the goods depends on other matters besides the country in which the goods originated or from which they were exported, the Commissioner General may also require the importer to state such facts as the Commissioner General may think necessary to determine that question, and with regard to those other matters to furnish him in such form as he may require with proof of any statements so made; and if proof is not furnished to his satisfaction or the required facts are not stated, those facts shall be deemed for the purposes of duty imposed by an order to be such as he may determine.

Provisions relating to declarations and signatures

281. (1) Where under this Act a declaration is required or authorized to be made, then the declaration may be made before a magistrate, notary public or Commissioner for oaths, or before an officer authorized by the Commissioner General for that purpose.

(2) Where under this Act a document is required or authorized to be signed in the presence of the Commissioner General or of a particular officer, then, if the document is signed in the presence of a witness who is approved by, and whose signature is known to, the Commissioner General or the particular officer, the document shall be deemed for the purpose of this Act to have been signed in the presence of the Commissioner General or the particular officer.

Receipts for payment on duty

282. Where a person requires a receipt for money paid and brought to account in respect of an entry, then that person shall furnish the proper officer with an additional copy, marked as such, of the entry and the additional copy duly signed by the proper officer and acknowledging receipt of the money shall be given to that person and shall constitute the receipt for the payment.

Service of notices, etc.

283. (1) Where under this Act a notice or other document is required or authorized to be served on, or given or delivered to, the Commissioner General or any other officer, then the notice or other document may be so served, given or delivered-

- (a) by delivering it personally to the Commissioner General or other officer; or
- (b) by leaving it at the office of the Commissioner General or other officer; or
- (c) by sending it by post to the Commissioner General or other officer.

(2) Where under this Act a notice or other document is required or authorized to be served on, or given or delivered to a person by the Commissioner General or any other officer, then such notice or other document may be so served, given or delivered-

- (a) by delivering personally to that person; or
- (b) by leaving it at the usual or last known place of address of that person; or
- (c) by sending it by post addressed to that person at his usual or last known place of address.

Provisions relating to loading, etc of

284. Where under this Act goods are required or authorized to be-