

(2) A magistrate issuing such warrant may, by the same or any other warrant cause any person accused of hoarding to be apprehended and brought before the court.

(3) Any person authorised by warrant under this section to search for goods hoarded may enter, if need be by force, any premises used in hoarding goods and shall record his findings in writing and counter signed by the person accused of hoarding or his representative.

9. (1) The Anti-Hoarding Decree, No 51 of 1995 is repealed.

(2) Save as otherwise provided under this Act, all regulations, orders and other subsidiary legislation made under the Anti-Hoarding Decree in force immediately before the coming in to force of this Act, shall, so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, continue in force as if they had been made under this Act and shall be treated accordingly.

10. (1) No suit prosecution or other legal proceedings shall be brought against any person for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of any provision of this Act and regulations made thereunder.

(2) No suit or other legal proceeding shall be brought against the government for any damage caused or likely to be caused by anything which is done in good faith or intended to be done in pursuance of any provision of this Act and regulations made thereunder.

11. The Minister may make regulations for carrying out the purposes of this Act.
