

(3) The National Commission shall, with the approval of the Secretary of State, make regulations establishing schemes for pensions, gratuities and other retirement benefits in respect of employees of the National Commission.

(4) The National Commission shall, for the purpose of achieving maximum efficiency in the discharge of its functions under this Act, institute schemes for the training of its employees in the relevant disciplines and in other skills, with a view to securing the benefit of their knowledge, experience and expertise in the conduct of the affairs of the National Commission.

PART V - FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

18. (1) The sources of the finances required to meet the expenses of the National Commission under section 19 are—

(a) sums appropriated to it, from time to time, by the National Assembly;

(b) support from development partners;

(c) grants and gifts, provided that the terms and conditions attached to a grant or gift are not inconsistent with the functions of the National Commission; and

(d) such other sums as may accrue to the National Commission from any other source.

(2) The finances accruing to the National Commission under subsection (1) shall be paid into a fund to be maintained by the National Commission.

Sources of finances of the National Commission

Expenses of the National Commission

19. The National Commission may, from time to time, apply the proceeds of the fund established in pursuance of section 18 to—

(a) the cost of administration of the Commission;

(b) the reimbursement to members of any committee appointed by the National Commission for such expenses as may be authorized by the National Commission, in accordance with the rates approved by the Secretary of State;

(c) the payments of salaries, fees and other remuneration, allowances, pensions and gratuities payable to members, employees of the National Commission, as appropriate, and experts, professionals or agents appointed by the National Commission;

(d) the maintenance of any property acquired or vested in the National Commission; and

(e) meeting such other expenses as may be approved by the National Commission for the purposes of this Act.

20. (1) The National Commission shall, not later than three months before the end of each financial year, prepare and submit to the Secretary of State for approval, estimates of the income and expenditure of the National Commission for the ensuing year.

(2) The National Commission shall keep proper records and books of accounts of its income, expenditure and transfers.

Estimates, accounts and audit